THE HICKMAN

COURIER.

OLDEST NEWSPAPER IN WESTERN KENTUCKY.

ESTABLISHED 1859.

HICKMAN, FULTON COUNTY, KY., FEB. 9, 1900.

VOL, XXXV, NO. 11.

Cutting the Prices

In order to cut down our stock. We are taking inventory, and want to figure up as few goods as possible.

Note these reductions:

$10.00 Buys choice of an elegant line of

MENS SUITS

that were $15.00 and $12.50.

$3.50 for Mens $5.00 Suits. $5.75 Mens Suits that were $7.50. 85c Mens Fancy Shirts, elegant patterns, our regular $1.00 Shirts. 4c Linens Collars. 8c Linen Cuffs.

Overcoats at HEAVY REDUCTIONS.

Ladies Tailor-Made Suits

at just HALF PRICE.

Jackets and Capes at HEAVY REDUCTIONS.

L. P. & W. S. ELLISON.

Books for New Series C. E. EAKER,

Will Close on Thursday Next at 2 O'Clock.

CALL ON SECRETARY!

C. A. HOLCOMBE, V. Pres't. W. C. JOHNSON, . a . er B. T. TYLER, Pres't.

HICKMAN, KENTUCKY.

Paid Up Capital $50,000.00

SURPLUS AND UNDIVIDED PROFITS $10,000. Solicits your business. We offer the most Liberal Accommodations to our Customers Consistent with Established Banking Principles.

DIRECTORS

R. T. TYLER, C. A. HOLCOMBE, J. NAYLOR, W. H. BALTZER J. W. COWGILL, W. L. MCCUTCHEN, M. B. SHAW.

Mr. Jorgenhausser Used to Worry

> Because his advertiesements in the local papers didn't seem to attract attention-didn't draw a crowd to his NEW BOOKS store and help him to sell goods.

NOW HE DON'T WORRY

Why? Because he has found that he can get fifty firstrate ads, chock full of suggestious, the best that are appearing in his line in newspapess the country over for a dollar—and that with their help it is mere play to arrange ads which fill the bill to a "T." You can do the same. All lines. Send a dollar to

AD SUPPLY BUREAU.

8 Devonshire St., Room 24,

BOSTON, MASS.

Dentist.

HICKMAN,

Office over Cowgill & Cowgill's Drug Store.

DR. S. K. DAVIDSON H. F. REMLEY, Attorney-at-Law. @ KENTUCKY Office up-stairs. Holcombe Build-HICKMAN,

Will practice in all Courts of the State, | idence, No. 96,

THE STEVE STAR

Livery and Feed Stable. Below Post-office, and opposite R. R Depot. Keeps Surreys, Bure Horses, &c., for hire. Every accu-dation given. Your patronage

Powell Block, Clinton St.

Having purchased the Grocery Stock of J. J. C. Bondurant, would be pleased to have all old friends to call. Fresh Goods and Choice Bargains.

A. F. OLIVER.

Blacksmith and Undertaker HICKMAN, KENTUCKY.

GIVE ME A TRIAL where you want Blacksmithing done, or repair in Wagons, &c. Horseshoing a specialty. I also keep a full line of

Undertaker's Goods

Common, Rosewood, and Solid Black Walnut Coffins and Cases, which can be fitted up in short notice, and at reasonable prices. Give mas carl.

Shop near the Jail.

Splendid Selection of

STATIONERY,

NOTIONS, &co

Call and see our Stock. Everything up to date.

MARY BERENDES & Co.

(Successor to Wm. Diestelbrink,) ---DEALER IN-

Fancy Groceries and

Provisions, BICKMAN,

KENTUCKY. FREE DELIVERY. Telephone-Store No. 94; Restoe, the pillars and cross with ivey, "to hee we cling," the church lighted by dectricity and the organ by candelabras with candles, withal making the view a holy and sacred scene. The bridal party entered the church by the sweet strains of Mendelson's Wedding March, receded down the main aisle by their tendants. Mr. A.W. Lindsay and Miss. Allie Dodds, taking their position on the dais, fronting the chancel, where Rev. Archer Boogher pronounced the solemnly beautiful ceremony that united their lives as husband and wife until death do them part. When the cermony began the congregation arose, tanding as witnesses to the holy conract, the soft and tender notes of "Call me Thine Own" the while being rentered by Mise Alice Cowgill and Mr. H. Millett, and the whole people joinng in that part of the service repeating he Lord's Prayer, and standing with wed heads as the bridal couple knelt the white lamb skins in the gateway the chancel as the manister invoked blessings upon them in the name of God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Ghost. The ceremony ended, the bridal party marched out of the church, the audience seated, to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March.

MARRIAGE BELLS

DODDS ... CLAY.

The church was beautifully decorated, the chancel with palms, ferns and mistle-

The bride was attired in an en traine effectly fitting blue rep cloth gown with the becoming accessories of velvet passamentry and effective white yoke and collar, with gloves and tasty hat natching her suit.

Miss Allie Dodds, her attendant, was astily gowned in pearl gray cloth, trimings of velvet and white, white gloves. nd a stylish gray hat with white bird.
Mr. Dodds and Mr. Lindsay were ressed in customary black suits. It goes without saying that this happy young couple enjoy the boundless good will, love and respect of all, and show ers of congratulations are theirs. They were the recipients of many beautiful esents, but by request the list is no imony, Rev. Holt officiating. -

The groom is one of Kentucky's most General Grocer, worthy and popular young men and en joys the honor of his profession as able and successful physician.

The bride is one of society's favorites and a most lovable young lady Miss Lula Warn, of Meridian, Miss was Maid of Honor. The attendants were Mr. D, W. Quarles, of Mississippi, Miss May Latta, V. McLeod, Miss Lucy Bondurant, Mr. Clint Bondurant, Miss Mary Hagan, of New Orleans. wedding march was rendered under the skilled fingers of Miss Ora Mayes. The happy couple were recipients of many hendsome ptesents, as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. Horn, silver tea set. Miss Jessie Meadows, stamp lamp. John Shaw, set silver tea spoons.

Mrs J. E. Cloys, berry set.

Mrs R. Keiser, set knives and forks. Miss Kate Bondurant, hanging lamp Mrs J. L. Brooks, silver cake stand. Miss G. White, napkins and towels. Miss May Wiley, dresser scarf. Miss May McClure, towels. Miss Lula Warn, bon bon dishes. Herman Bondurant, sugar spoon. Ed Nevill, cake plates. Mrs Jno Bondurant, set of dishes. Mrs Mary Campbell, desert plates. John Turk, silver tea spoons. Ed Turk, silver butter dish. Mr and Mrs E C Mayes, water set. Miss Ada Kuykendall, stamp lami! Miss Maud Avery, silver water set. Mrs Wm Bondurant, berroom set. Mrs L H Hardin, half doz rugs. Miss Irene Shaw, pillow shams. Miss May Latta, fruit dish. Mr and Mrs H W Moss, two medallions Mrs L B Bondurant, cups and sancers V M McLeod, silver carving set. D W Quarles, willow rocker.

T W Atteberry, bon bon dishes. A J Applegate, plush chair. W A Luten, suver sugar bowl. Clint Bondurant, brussels rug. Mrs L W Dicsinson, cake plates, &c Miss Mary Hagan, 5 elegant pictures. Miss Ora Mayes, water set and mirror Miss Ella Bondurant, elegant vases. Chas Campbel, silver knives and forks Jake Avery, dresser set. Mrs Avery, silver lamp stand. Mr and Mrs John Mayes, piano lamp.

Lee Tyler, $10 bill. Elgin Hardin, silver butter knife. Mr D W Keiser, father of the groom handsome residence in Humboldt, Ten nessec, where the happy couple will make their future home. Mosier-Hill.

(Obion Democrat.)

Mr. J. L. Mosier and Miss Lillie Hill were married Wednesday at the Meth odist parsonage, by Rev. J. H. Roberts, after prayer meeting. They were very successful in making the wedding a quiet one, as they intended, and sur-prised their many friends. Mr. Mosier is a successful young lawyer well-known in Obion and Lake counties, and KENTUCKY. southern Missouri, where he has done a great deal of practice and made many warm friends. Miss Hill is a young woman who has a score of devoted friends in this city, a lovable, womanly character, and is a devoted Christian worker in the Methodist church.

Married, at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, on Wednesday evening, the 7th, at 8 p. m., by Rev. Archer Boogher, Mr. Will A. Dodds and Miss Fannie Clay. Attendants—Mr. A. W. Lindsay and Miss Allie Dodds.

Law and Order Triumphs.

TAYLOR GOES OUT, AND PEACE REIGNS.

struggle which threatened such and order as observed by the demrain to every interest in Ken- ocrats. It is wonderful that untucky is settled. Leading Re- der all the trying conditions that publicans and leading Democrats some democrat or democrate were met in Louisville where they made not precipitated into actual vioand signed an agreement for an lence, and probably the belief on adjustment of the troubles. This their part that Taylor was seekagreement is:

1st. Beckham is to be acknowl- caused them to restrain. edged as the legal Governor.

Frankfort is to be dismissed and ed men in the State Capitol and mitted to assemble in the State ed by a competent court, was in-House in Frankfort, and when as augurated, and he was Governor sembled to pass resolutions rat of the State as legally as any Govifying the declarations affirming ernor who ever occupied the chair, the Contest Board's decision as and no one controverted this. But to Governor and Lt. Governor. his opponent, Mr. Goebel, under This is to be done at the request the law had the right to appeal, of the Republicans to satisfy them and he did contest before the as to the legality of the previous court-the only court authorized declaration.

tration of Governor Beckha a to appealed from a circuit court to guarantee to ex-Governor Taylor the Court of Appeals. Men canand his Assistants immunity from not refuse to obey the decision of arrest or conviction for disband- the court because the judge or ing the Legislature, the use of the jury may oppose them in party militia, or disobedience to the or- politics. If they do, chaos and but the nature of such amend- these judges try men who differ ments is not published.

ment were: Republicans - John Marshall, and violation of law on his part. Judge J. W. Barr, Gen. Dan Lind. Presumably ex-Gov. Taylor had sey, T. L. Edelen, Dr. T. H. Baker, the advice in the course he pur-D. W. Fairleigh, C. T. Ballard.

J. C. W. Beckham, Sam J. Shack. ty leaders, and when he declared elford, Urey Woodson, J. B. Mc-Creary, Phil Thompson.

are bound to rejoice over the settlement. The body of the people of Kentucky, Democrats nor Relawlessness or violence. It was aided, inflamed and maddened by and order. some partisan papers utterly unscrupulous as to what they publish-the meanest and bitterest charges that the buman mind can invent is what they want to pubinto a terrible civil war.

sible; he acted more like a lunatic than a sane man, more like a frenzied fool than an Executive ture, prohibited them from entering the State House, and actually had the soldiers to chase the vented their assembling; he refus- teed. Sold by all druggists. ed to respect or obey the orders of an established State Court and imprisoned the court's bailiff. Because of such acts as these, the law and courts of his own State as | ture of infinite beauty .- Fulton Guard.

Thank God the Gubernatorial against civil government, law ing to provoke such violence

Taylor was thoroughly justifi-2ud. The militia assembled at able up to the assembling of armquartering them in the State 3rd. The Legislature to be per buildings He was declared electby the law to hear his case. It 4th. The Democratic adminis- was precisely as when a case is 5. There was some conditional Districts in Kentucky the Judges agreements about needed amend are Republicans, and in some they ments to the State election laws, are Democrats, and every day with them in politics. This situ-The leaders signing this agree- ation confronted Taylor, but it was no justification for lawlessness saed by the Repablican members Democrats-J. C. S. Blackburn, of the Legislature and other parthat an "insurrection" existed, if the Democrats had rushed into The good people of the State, shooting and killing somebody, in fact of the whole United States, why the insurrection cry would have held good, Federal soldiers would have been sent into the State, &c., but for a wonder, and publicans, wanted no bloodshed, for the good and peace of the people and the Commonwealth, the the rancor and bitterness of poli- Democrats didn't resort to vioticians that precipitated the con- lence or any violation of law, but ditions, and these politicians were kept track all the time with law

Gov. Taylor had not signed the agreement up to yesterday, but it was semi-authoritatively announced that he would. If he does, the Legislature will assemble in the lish against the opposing side. Capitol next Monday, the troops Such rancor and bitterness has dismissed, and Beckham be income near precipitating Kentucky augurated Governor. If Taylor does not sign the agreement en-The conduct of ex-Governor tered into by his own leaders, the Taylor from the day of Goebel's responsibility of refusing the peace aseassination was utterly indefen- agreement will be upon his own

For Polite Correspondence.

The latest novelties in the Box Paper, Tablets, &c. Broken packages of sworn to execute and obey the paper and envelopes, extra fine stock at cost and less, Wilson's Book Store.

A Frightful Blunder

Will often cause a horrible Burn, Scald, Cut or Bruise. Bucklen's Arnica Salve will kill the pain and promptly heal it. Legislature from one public build- Cures Fever Sores, Ulcers, Boils, Corns, ing to another and foreibly pre- all Skin Eruptions. Best Pile cure on earth. Only 25c a box. Cure guaran-

Bennett-Colbourn Wedding.

A quiet home wedding occurred at the residence of Dr. A. B. Whayne, on Norman street, Tuesday evening at 7:35 leading Republican papers, and the contracting parties being Dr. Erstatesmen, from the President nest Bennett and Mrs. Battie Whayne Cobourn, Rev. E. M. Waits officiating. down, or a large majority of them, The wedding was no surprise to Fulton could not endorse or sustain him. people, as the event was announced in last Sunday's issue of the Guard. The Taylor's action made it a clear home was tastefully decorated and the case of military government on few present, consisting only of the imhis side, force, defiance of the mediate family, pronounced the mar-